

Veritas Consulting & Analytics is a Florida-based forensic accounting and fraud examination firm dedicated to delivering clear, defensible financial analysis in support of civil and criminal litigation, internal investigations, and financial dispute resolution. Founded and led by Peggy L. Koller, MSFFE, CFE, Veritas partners with attorneys and small business owners to provide objective, expert-level insight — whether the matter involves early-stage case assessment, expert witness testimony, or organizational response to suspected fraud.

Core Capabilities

- Forensic Accounting & Fraud Examination
- Litigation Support & Expert Witness Services
- Financial Reconstruction
- Economic Damages Calculations & Rebuttals
- Financial Document Review & Analysis
- Discovery & Pretrial Assistance
- Post-Fraud Remediation
- Internal Controls Consulting & Fraud Prevention Strategy
- Employee Theft & Embezzlement Investigations
- Public Speaking & Continuing Education

Industry Experience & Case Types

- Retail and Closely Held Businesses
- Cash-Intensive and High-Risk Industries (e.g., cannabis, restaurants & bars, construction)
- Insurance Claims & Fraudulent Loss Allegations
- Securities & Investment Disputes
- Partner Disputes, Mediation, & Business Divorce
- Employee Misappropriation, Skimming, & Payroll Fraud
- Financial Statement Manipulation & Undisclosed Income
- Civil and Criminal Tax Exposure & Controversy
- Lifestyle Analysis & Asset Identification in Divorce

What Sets Our Founder Apart

- 35+ years of financial experience, with 10+ in forensic accounting and fraud examination
- Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) with a Master of Science in Forensics and Fraud Examination
- Trusted by attorneys and small business owners for impartial, actionable analysis
- Exclusively forensic-focused — no tax, audit, or general accounting
- Responsive, personalized service with strategic collaboration